1.1 Introduction

When You interact or intend to interact with us, we would like to clarify certain things that are important to us. To that end, we have prepared the following information for you. You are advised to read them carefully. In case You have questions, do not hesitate to contact us.

1.2 Scope and Purpose

You have received information provided through one of our public communication channels, including our websites and social media accounts (the Content). The Content is generally provided by Bitcoin Suisse AG or any of its affiliates (together BTCS or “we” or “us”), whereby “affiliates” shall mean any legal entity that controls, is controlled by or is under the same control as Bitcoin Suisse AG. This section sets forth the binding rules and principles that apply to the Content and any relationship, legal or otherwise, between You and BTCS, insofar as no special agreements apply.

1.3 Information about the Content

The information, whether provided directly in the Content or through the web links or external references provided therein, is for information purposes only at the time of publication and should not be regarded as comprehensive or up to date. Unless otherwise stated, the information does not constitute an opinion, assurance, offer or invitation to submit an offer, nor any legal, investment or tax advice or recommendations, nor any other statement that establishes a non-contractual, pre-contractual or contractual relationship or responsibility on the part of BTCS.

BTCS does not represent or guarantee the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, and suitability of the information made available in the Content, including references to third-party content. BTCS does not make any express or implied warranties regarding the content, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or use or suitability for the recipient’s needs. You as the recipient must form your own independent opinion and must not make decisions based on the information contained herein. Various information used in the Content may have been obtained by BTCS from third parties, such as execution venues, news providers, market data providers, business partners and other content providers which we believe to be sources of reliable information.

BTCS, its executive bodies or employees shall not be held liable by You or anyone else due to any inaccuracies, errors or omissions in the Content for any damages, including losses arising therefrom (whether direct or indirect, consequential, or punitive or of any other kind). Unless otherwise stated, BTCS does not verify or endorse third-party content and disclaims any liability for inaccuracies, errors or omissions in such content and for the security of web links and external references.

1.4 Information about Product Risks

You are advised to take note that crypto assets and the use of services related such as assets may involve high risks, in particular increased price fluctuations, technology risks, third-party reliance for the availability of Your funds, and regulatory uncertainty.

Historical performance is not indicative of future outcomes and prices. Any forward-looking statements or projections are speculative and not guaranteed. Investment decisions should be based on individual research and analysis or advice from a professional advisor.

Decisions to purchase, sell or hold crypto assets or any other product, financial or otherwise, or to use any service, financial or otherwise, may involve risks, including the total loss of the amount invested or held. You are advised to obtain professional financial advice.

BTCS, its executive bodies or employees shall not be held liable by You or anyone else for any damages including losses (whether direct or indirect, consequential, or punitive or of any other kind) incurred by You or anyone else as a result of the purchase, sale or holding of crypto assets on the basis of any information in the Content or otherwise provided by BTCS, its executive bodies or employees.

1.5 Information about Advertising and Offering

The information provided in the Content refers to the products and services that BTCS may offer or provide to its clients. Depending on the circumstances, the information may constitute advertising under article 68 of the Swiss Financial Services Act (FinSA).

The information does not take into account the financial circumstances of any individual or entity, whether that person is a client of BTCS or not, nor does it offer tax, legal, or investment advice. The Content is not intended to provide, or be the basis of, advice, a recommendation, a binding offer or an invitation to submit an offer, by or on behalf of BTCS to buy, sell or hold any assets, including crypto assets, which may qualify as financial instruments within the meaning of the FinSA, or to use the services provided by BTCS, including financial services within the meaning of the FinSA.

1.6 Restricted Access to Content

The information provided in the Content is not intended for reading, watching, use or distribution in any jurisdiction or country where such distribution, publication or use would be contrary to law or regulation or in which BTCS does not hold the required registration, approval, authorization, or license, in particular in the United States of America, including its territories.

BTCS is not registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as a broker-dealer under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, nor as an investment advisor under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940, nor with any other competent authority under applicable state or federal law of the United States of America. BTCS does not offer any services to "U.S. persons" as defined under applicable U.S. law. None of the information contained in the content is directed at U.S. persons and therefore does not constitute a solicitation of any offer from any U.S. person.

1.7 Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest

The information made available to You in the Content may be influenced by the personal or commercial interests of BTCS, its business partners, or its clients. BTCS may have financial interests in or even be involved with the companies or products mentioned in the Content. Especially, the STOXX Digital Asset Blue Chip Index has been created by STOXX in cooperation with BTCS. Any information about the STOXX Digital Asset Blue Chip Index is provided on an information-only basis and is not intended and shall not be interpreted as suggesting or recommending in any way any decision on financial matters or as promoting any product of any nature. Valour, advised by BTCS, has issued the 1Valour STOXX Bitcoin Suisse Digital Asset Blue Chip ETP, which tracks the performance of the STOXX Digital Asset Blue Chip Index. BTCS or its affiliates may therefore have a financial interest in the STOXX Digital Asset Blue Chip Index, the 1Valour STOXX Bitcoin Suisse Digital Asset Blue Chip ETP, and any other third-party financial product that uses the STOXX Digital Asset Blue Chip Index as a benchmark.

1.8 Content Amendments and Updates

We reserve the right to modify, update, or replace the information provided at any time without prior notice. There is no obligation to notify recipients of changes or to update outdated or obsolete information, unless required by law.
